Fusionart International

Fusionart is a movement found by artist Rassouli to promote and develop the power of creativity that lives within every person and is always ready to be expressed. Our purpose is to assist in unlocking the inherent creative power and be catalysts for the expansion of this creative process. We are an emerging advocate of promoting the freedom of exploration, discovery and invoking the creator we are through surrendering and releasing any sense of judgment, fear and self-criticism.

Charlie Morey, Debra Hintz, Tommy Hollenstein

Charlie Morey became enchanted with photography in his late teen years. While nature and wildlife photography is his true love, Morey also roams the streets and alleys of his urban L.A. landscape recording the traces of irony and humor left behind by its denizens. Debra Hintz paints strictly in oils using palette knives to create her heavily textured paintings. Tommy Hollenstein broke his back in a mountain bike accident in 1985 and spends his life in a powered wheelchair, which he also uses to paint his masterpieces on canvas panels.
